

PLACED IN VAULT

Mrs. Rogers Body Interred at Hoosic Falls.

IN PRESENCE OF THE FAMILY

To Avoid Crowd, Body Taken from Train at Hoosic and Then Driven to Cemetery and Placed in Vault—An Armed Guard Stationed at Vault.

Hoosic Falls, N. Y., Dec. 9.—The body of Mary Mabel Rogers, who was executed at Windsor, Vt., yesterday, was placed in a vault at St. Mary's cemetery here early today, preparatory to the interment in the presence of the family at 6 o'clock this morning.

It had been generally supposed that the body would be brought over the Boston & Maine railroad to the station here last night and several hundred persons had gathered at the depot. To avoid the crowd, friends of the Rogers family appealed to the railroad officials to have the train stopped at Hoosic. This was done and the body removed from the baggage car at that station where it was taken in charge by the undertakers. The casket was placed in a wagon and drove to the cemetery.

It had been planned to make an immediate interment, but at the last moment this plan was abandoned and the body placed in a vault to remain there until interment at 6 o'clock when the wish of the relatives and friends for a final opening of the casket was granted. Meantime the vault was secured and an armed guard remained in charge. Awaiting the funeral party at the cemetery were Rev. Francis A. McCrane, Katharine Callahan and a sister of the dead woman, a brother Louis, and a few intimate friends of the family.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Next Friday evening the members of the Pastime Club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Colwell.

Miss Elsie Elmore entertained the Chaffing Dish Club last Friday evening at her home on 14th street. A guessing game, musical in character was played by those present. The prizes were won by Miss Bertha Hobson, and Mr. Swenson Morton.

Besides the usual club members present, the club entertained Miss Florence Baker, of Santa Cruz, California, and Miss Grace Stokes, of the same city.

Monday evening the members of the Every Fortnight Club were entertained very pleasantly at the home of Miss Helen Dickenson. Mrs. Mary McKenzie and Miss Dickenson were the hostesses. The decorations were in Oregon grape.

Friday the ladies of the Friday Afternoon Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. G. H. George.

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the Redmen's hall. A delightful afternoon was spent by the ladies in playing instructive games, and listening to a fine program as follows:

Recitation, Quarrel scene between Brutus and Cassius, from Julius Caesar. Mrs. Gratie Piano solo, "The Venetian Love Song." Mrs. Ora Baker Vocal Solo, "Could I," Gertrude M. Finch Miss Elmore, accompanist. Piano Solo, "Whispering Waves," Charles Blake Bertha Welch Holmes.

After the program delicious refreshments were served.

One of the prettiest weddings in Astoria social circles for some time was the marriage last night of Miss Marie Aderberg to John E. Wicks, Rev. Gustaf Rydquist officiating. The impressive ceremony was performed in the First Lutheran church which was elaborately decorated for the occasion in yellow Chrysanthemums, bridal roses, and ferns. Over the altar was an arch made from ferns. The whole scheme of decorations was artistic to a degree.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bride, charmingly attired in Lansdale, with a long white veil fastened with orange blossoms and carrying white carnations, entered the church where at the altar she was met by the groom, Miss Sophie Loo acted as bridesmaid, and Alf. Weeks as best man.

After the ceremony the bride and groom were tendered a reception in the church parlors, where dainty refreshments were served. About 100 guests attended the reception. The happy couple will make their home in this city where they have many friends who wish them the utmost happiness.

MEETING IS ENDED.

New York, Dec. 9.—The 32nd meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, which has been in session here since last Tuesday evening, came to an end yesterday. It was by far the largest and most successful the society has had, nearly 2000 members and guests having been in attendance. The next meeting will be held in Chattanooga, Tenn., next spring.

LEADER ARRIVES

Russian Revolutionary is Visiting in New York City.

MISSION TO COLLECT FUNDS

He Says that Government is Unable to Detect Them—Arrests Made Now and Then—One Hundred Members in the Bund.

New York, Dec. 9.—Moysey Gourevich, one of the leaders of the revolutionary organization in Russia, known as the Bund, has just arrived in this city from that country, where he was recently released from prison, after serving two years for his revolutionary tendencies. His mission in this country, he said, yesterday, is to collect funds for the cause from the sympathizers of the Bund. To that end Mr. Gourevich announced that he would make a trip through the United States. He said:

"The revolutionists have established a perfect underground government and notwithstanding the vigilance of the authorities, we are enabled to carry on our work without detection or hindrance. Of course, now and then one of our members is arrested.

"There are about 100,000 members of the Bund in Russia and double that number are associated with us. We publish our proclamation and circulate them, despite the long search which the government has made for our presses. To circulate our proclamations we employ women, who conceal them about their persons and carry them from place to place.

"Our movement has made such progress as the most sanguine revolutionist would not have hoped for a year ago. We have forced concessions from the government that were never thought possible. But the revolution has only begun."

The relief fund was increased yesterday by $21,524, which brings the total of the second million dollar fund up to $97,504.

A Changeful Rhyme.

THE goddess of our home I sing, The creature all bewitching! Sweet, faithful—wife, who is the thing That now is in our kitchen?

She only wants her Sundays free, A bedroom large and airy And beans from eight till half past three; I sing, I sing of—Carrie.

Her skin is white, her eyes are black, Her biscuits are like manna; We cannot do, alas, alack, Without our darling Hannah.

Her skin is black, her eyes are white, Her ancestry is Zulu; She burns the gas, we think, all night, But still we love our Lulu.

The way our dishes chip and break Is something quite uncanny, We hear it all for comfort's sake And cling to precious Annie.

She will not iron, wash nor sweep; She's just a bit contrary, But this our highest hope—to keep Through thick and thin our Mary.

So if we hear gay fingers strike A-playing some burletta We get the meal—we would not like To bother Henrietta.

Oh, fate, I kneel and humbly sue Till trousers both are baggy! We're willing anything to do, Save give up (who, wife?) Maggie. —Puck.

Bread Upon the Waters.

A young physician just out of college opened an office in a little southern town where he had formerly been a drug clerk. His first call came from the colored quarter. Upon his arrival at the home of the patient he was informed that he had been called upon the recommendation of a neighbor, who considered him the best doctor in town. Presently the neighbor came in and explained:

"Yes, sah, I done tell ev'body 'at you's do bes' docteh in town, 'cause ten years ago when my Susie had the convulsions you sold me a twenty-five cent bottle of patent medicine, and dey ain't a one of my chillun had a symptom of dat disease since. You sha' allus be my docteh!"—New York Times.
